Can you go through the redline doc record and let me know if you have any additional comments? From my quick review, they basically incorporated our last set of comments on the last redlined version.

I guess you didn't hear anything back from the lab?

Thanks!

Lorie

Subject: Blades Groundwater Final Streamlined QA Review

Dear Terry and Lorie,

CSRA LLC, a General Dynamics Information Technology company (hereinafter referred to as GDIT), is pleased to submit the final streamlined QA review for the Blades Groundwater site (EPA ID No. DEN000304203) HRS package. Also attached is the Blades Groundwater site HRS documentation record with our suggested edits shown in redline for immediate review.

GDIT respectfully requests approval of the suggested redline edits, with or without modifications, by the end of the day Thursday, 10/17, to keep within the update schedule. If you have any questions, please call me at [Nonresponsive based on revised scope]
